Apologies – The cost of the retreat has risen due to the cost of living rising, the Friary has adjusted their price accordingly. Refunds will not be possible, but we are happy for you to find someone to take your place and receive payment from them if you find you are unable to come. The Friary will try to cater for most dietary requirements so please specify on registration form.

We will be following and updating the Covid protocols that are relevant at the time. (A full refund is offered if the retreat is cancelled for unforeseen circumstances).
