OUR REAL PURPOSE

ALEXANDRA
MARCH 1- 3 2024

Our real purpose

“At the moment we are trying to put our lives in order. But this is not an end in itself. Our real purpose is to fit ourselves to be of maximum service to God and the people about us. It is seldom wise to approach an individual, who still smarts from our injustice to him, and announce that we have gone religious. In the prize ring, this would be called leading with the chin. Why lay ourselves open to being branded fanatics or religious bores? We may kill a future opportunity to carry a beneficial message. But our man is sure to be impressed with a sincere desire to set right the wrong. He is going to be more interested in a demonstration of good will than in our talk of spiritual discoveries.

We don't use this as an excuse for shying away from the subject of God. When it will serve any good purpose, we are willing to announce our convictions with tact and common sense. The question of how to approach the man we hated will arise. It may be he has done us more harm than we have done him and, though we may have acquired a better attitude toward him, we are still not too keen about admitting our faults. Nevertheless, with a person we dislike, we take the bit in our teeth. It is harder to go to an enemy than to a friend, but we find it much more beneficial to us. We go to him in a helpful and forgiving spirit, confessing our former ill feeling and expressing our regret.”

Accommodation

We suggest you book your accommodation early as there can be limited availability over the summer months due to high demand from holiday makers and seasonal workers.

There are several motels in Alexandra within walking distance of the venue, as well as many Air BnB homes and boutique lodges in the area.

The Alexandra Holiday Park has cabins as well as parking for camper-vans and mobile homes.

For those wanting to stay further afield the historic township of Clyde is a 10 minute drive from Alexandra, and Cromwell is about 25 minutes.

Both Queenstown and Wanaka are just over an hour away.
